

OUR GOLDEN THREADS IN HISTORY

MONARCHY

A form of government where power is held by a single, lifelong ruler called a monarch, typically a king or queen.

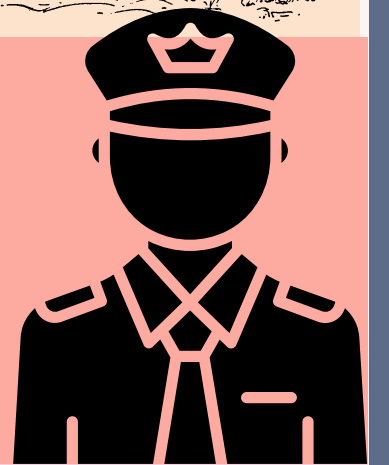

EMPIRE

A large group of countries, regions, or territories controlled by a single ruler or government.

INVASION

The act of an army entering a country to take control.

TRADE

The act of buying and selling goods and services or exchanging one thing for another.

CHANGE

To become different, to alter, or to undergo transformation.

BELIEFS

Convictions about what is true or how the world works.

